Falcon Highlights

Just a reminder that there will be a PTF (Parent teacher fellowship) on Thursday, April 14, 2016 in the Science lab (across the hall from the upstairs office) There will not be a potluck this time. We will be voting on PTF positions at this time and encourage everyone to please participate. These PTF meetings are a great opportunity to voice any concerns you may have and get to know other parents and staff involved with CCS. If you have any questions, please contact the front office.
